The heroin epidemic that's destroying our country

No. 59 SEPTEMBER 1984

IN THE GRIP OF A PLAGUE

■ The threat to our future generations.

ONCE AGAIN THIS Government of ours has got it wrong! This time with the growing problem of heroin addiction in Britain. Social Services Secretary, Norman Fowler, has announced a campaign to fight this growing malaise, a sensible move you might think, but all his short-sighted Government is offering to combat the sickness, that was described by a doctor at the recent British Medical Association's Annual Meeting as 'a plague', is a little extra help with the facilities for those suffering the affliction. Nothing is to be done to eradicate the germ that is spreading the poison.

The major emphasis in the battle against drug addiction must be on prevention and that must mean stricter controls and checks to stop the drugs getting into Britain and stiffer penalties for those caught trafficking in the drug.

■ Heathrow: The principal point for drug smuggling.

■ Customs: Losing control of the situation.

Since 1979 the Government has cut some 1,000 Customs Officer posts making it far easier for the drug couriers to enter Britain. At Dover, for instance, 70% of coaches are waved through customs without being checked. At Heathrow, the principal point in the UK for drug smuggling, the overworked customs officials, despite seizing larger and larger quantities every year, admit that with the cuts in their manpower they are 'losing control of the situation'.

GAMBLING

The Government's cut in the manpower of Customs and Excise Service has led to a new trend in drug smuggling. Gone are the complicated plots and well constituted concealment methods. The would-be smuggler today is now gambling on the odds of being stopped, odds of which are now heavily stacked in his favour and increasing every year.

The epidemic of hard drug addiction has the most malignant knock-on effects; the drugs related prostitution, child perversion, theft, corruption, disease and the subsequent breakdown of the society, and while all this is happening, the drug-barons are quietly sending their massive profits to banks in Switzerland and the Cayman Islands completely unhindered the the forces of law and order.

The will and the courage are all that are needed to destroy the drugs racket in Britain. Out of all our political parties only the National Front has these qualities.

THE NATIONAL Front believes that persons who manufacture, import and distribute lethal drugs in large quantities as a commercial enterprise should be subject to the death penalty.

Those who traffic in drugs and those who sell drugs on the streets should be subject to prison sentences of not less than ten years. Only such heavy sentences will act as a deterrent to those who purvey this filth.

DRUGS AND IMMIGRATION

ONE OF the contributing factors to the heroin explosion in Britain is our country's large coloured immigrant population.

Britain's drug market has been flooded by cheap opium from Pakistan, where the Government has closed down opium houses, leaving growers with a glut of the illegal harvest. Every day customs officials face thousands of Asian immigrants at Heathrow, some coming into the country, some going out, relatives visiting family resident in Britain and, of course, new immigrants arriving. It is not surprising that Heathrow is the principal point for drug smuggling in Britain and again, it's not surprising that Asian immigrants make up the majority of drug-traffickers.

SEIZED

In June, Customs and Excise officers seized what was described as "the biggest heroin haul in the United Kingdom". Heroin weighing 39.95 Kilos with a street value of £6 million.

■ Every day customs officials face thousands of Asian immigrants.

The newspapers reported those arrested were "three Birmingham men" but closer inspection revealed that such a description was a slight on that city. National Front News would describe Yasim Mohammed, Zahid Iqbal and Afsar Shah as coloured immigrants who have been given British passports by corrupt British Governments.

SUPPLY AND DEMAND

So, much of the supply of heroin comes from Asia, bought into the country by Asians and distributed by Asians. A recent TV Eye programme on ITV revealed this when exposing various Pakistani 'Mr Bigs' running a drugs ring in the north of England. But if Asians supply it, the demand comes, from among others, Britain's Caribbean communities.

The North-West Thames Regional Health Authority admitted that its problem areas for drug addiction were Notting Hill, Paddington and Brent, all areas with large immigrant populations.

DEMAND

Drug Addiction, like Britain's problems of rising crime and unemployment could be partially solved by a policy of stopping immigration and repatriating those immigrants living here.

The smuggling of drugs into Britain would be severely hindered by an end to immigration while the demand for drugs would drop drastically with the repatriation of coloured communities from places like Notting Hill.

With the burden of 6 million immigrants removed from our essential services more time, money and expertise would be available to look after our own victims of this plague that threatens to wipe out our future generations.

Shanking & Sensimilia

Enriching Our Culture?

SHANKING, IS the only way to spend the day, we are told by the South London Press in a report on 13th July about a reggae festival held at Selhurst Park, Crystal Palace.

It's a sort of tribal dance involving plenty of 'natural rhythm' and comes as second nature to Britain's coloured inhabitants although white people who have tried to do it look rather silly.

Why coloured people can do this dance better is probably because they are allowed to smoke marijuana as they are doing it, while of course, British 'shankers' must obey the law.

We must be grateful for Jaswinder Bancel, the South London Press reporter for informing us "Police deliberately keep a low profile, turning a blind eye to the widespread use of 'sensimilia' (marijuana) which is part of the Rastafarian faith".

Roger Denny (Paddington)

Brent Cheetham (Edmonton)

Mark Spong (Hayes and Harlington)

John Wright (Lewisham West)

THE NATIONAL FRONT will be taking on 'Red Ken' in the forthcoming GLC by-elections for which polling day is Thursday 20th September.

All four constituencies will have National Front candidates with Roger Denny, the National Membership Secretary, taking on Den Livingstone in the Paddington seat. Roger Denny is 25 years old and has worked for the party almost continuously since leaving school.

John Wright, a 28 year-old advertising executive will be standing in Lewisham West, while insurance officer, Brent Cheetham is the NF's choice for Edmonton. Former TG-WU shop steward Mark Spong takes on the Deputy Leader of the GLC John McDonnell in Hayes and Harlington.

Help, both financial and physical is needed for the four campaigns. If you wish to contribute towards the £600 needed to meet the leaflet printing costs please send your donation to 50, Pawsons Road, Croydon, Surrey CRO 2QF stating clearly that the money is for the GLC by-election campaigns. If you can help leafletting and canvassing please phone 01-684-0271

I Wanna Tell You A Story!

ON FRIDAY 15th June, the Islington Gazette and Stoke Newington Observer carried a full front page story under the headline "Thugs in Race Attack on Boy 9, Police Alert Over NF Terror Gangs".

The story, by one Keith Archer, told of a terrified Asian school boy being beaten up in a racial attack by a gang of youths "wearing National Front stickers and balaclavas". There were quotes from the boy's mother who's a teacher at an Islington school about how afraid she was of racial attacks, from the local council about their concern over the rising number of racial attacks and from a police spokesman who said "There was an indication that there was some National Front involvement".

It's the type of story that would put the people of Islington off voting National Front for life! The type of story that would make the majority of National Front members in Islington ashamed of their association with the party, and its the type of story that would 'bury' the Front in an area where we are trying to re-organise our units.

Of course, this front page story that will influence so many people against the National Front, was a load of rubbish. Two weeks later, on Friday 29th June, the Islington Gazette on page seventeen in a report measuring 4½ by 9cms revealed "The police are satisfied that the attack never happened".

COMPENSATION

Now if a person had been libelled in such away the damages would be astronomical. Yet the National Front can do nothing. Compensation for the injustice the party has suffered and the injury to our electoral hopes should run into tens of thousands of pounds, but, of course we will get nothing. It's even unlikely that the Press Council will bother to wrap the knuckles of the Islington Gazette as the latter can claim it was just covering the story as it was told to them.

So who's to blame for this situation?

We can blame the newspaper for sensationalising a story that even if true should not have warranted more than a couple of lines; you know, the same amount of space that is given to the old white lady mugged by three black youths'.

We can blame the Asian family for concocting the story. A growing trend among immigrants best illustrated by the now well known case of the Indian student who carved 'NF' on his wrist and claimed a racial attack because he had failed his exams!

ELEVATING

But in the main the blame lies with those politicians who have insisted on elevating this country's coloured immigrants to a class above the indigenous population by grovelling and pandering to their every need. Politicians who have been strident concerning racial attacks on immigrants but said nothing about racial attacks on whites. Politicians who are obsessed with funding every black Tom, Dick and Harry yet do nothing to better the plight of Britain's poor, and politicians who vilify 'racial instincts' at every opportunity equating 'monkey noises at a football match' with the crimes of violence and murder.

Is it hardly surprising that coloured immigrants follow these politicians' examples and use the pretence of attacks by the National Front as a lever to squeeze those extra concessions from local councils.

So what can we do about it? Well for one, if I were Islington NF I would organise a demonstration outside the offices of the Islington Gazette and hand out leaflets drawing attention to the bogus report.

On a more national basis it's up to the National Front to combat the media's lies by sinking roots in local communities by setting up local branches and groups in those communities, becoming well known in the community by weekly leafletting and selling newspapers and by becoming part of the community by getting involved in local issues. It is only then, when such outrageous smear stories attacking the National Front appear, that they will be dismissed by the majority of the public for the nonsense they really are.

REDS FAIL TO STOP FRONT MARCH IN MAIDSTONE

■ A 'Red' arrested.

■ A flag-bearer watches nervously as 'Reds' try to attack the meeting.

■ A vicar looks confused as the 'hate and violence' comes from those opposing the NF.

■ Police tackle a 'Red' demonstrator.

THE SECOND OF the series of regional marches was held in Maidstone, Kent on Saturday 14th July. It received national pre-march publicity as a result of an invitation extended by the Kent Regional Organiser, Paul Johnson, to the French Front Nationale to send a speaker. The Guardian promptly announced that the Leader of the Front National Jean Marie Le Pen would be coming.

As a result of this publicity, calls were made by local councillors, Reds and Black groups for the march to be banned. They also announced they would hold an anti-racist march on the morning of the same day as the National Front march.

On the day of the march about 200 National Front members and supporters gathered in Maidstone ready for the march. As soon as the column started to form up a group of Reds attempted to attack the London Drum Corps but were beaten off with a few injuries... to the Reds.

The march formed up with the Flag Party and the London Drum Corps ably protected by the stewards. Foaming Reds ran alongside the column and on a number of occasions attacked the marchers, only to be fended off by the young Front stewards.

CHURCHMEN

The rally at the end of the march was in a large park and full use was made of the bandstand. As the column entered the park it was met by a group of local churchmen holding banners proclaiming: "Love thy neighbour" — but they all live in relatively White Maidstone not a nightmare area like Brixton where your neighbour could be your mugger or even your murderer.

The rally was addressed by Kent Regional Organiser Paul Johnson and NF Deputy Chairman Ian Anderson. The Reds were so infuriated by the speeches that they launched occasional attacks on the police... resulting in more of them being arrested.

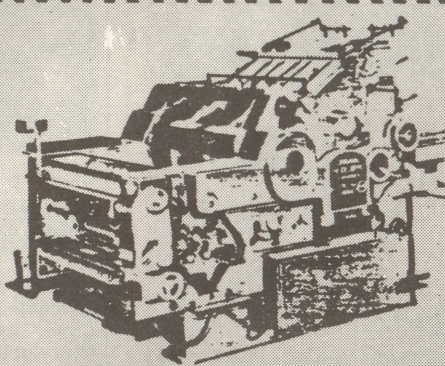

The previously small Maidstone Group has received a great boost as a result of this activity and the accompanying campaign and is already helping Kent become one of the major National Front Regions. The Reds vowed to stop our march... on the day they failed but ensured that the march received national publicity.

■ Pensive looks from Kent Regional Organiser Paul Johnson and NF Deputy Chairman Ian Anderson as the march moves off.

£5000 APPEAL

£4000
£3000
£2000

Security for the Future

A £5,000 APPEAL has been launched to enable the National Front to purchase a printing press (on which National Front News could be printed) and a computer. This appeal has got off to a flying start, already £800.40 has been raised and this has enabled the party to take the first steps towards buying the printing press.

The total cost of setting up this printing press will be about £12,000 of which £9,000 is being loaned by members, the balance of £3,000 must be raised by the party. The acquisition of such a press would be the biggest single step forward ever taken by the party in terms of becoming self sufficient. It would enable an even greater volume of political literature to be produced and in the longer term will enable National Front News to increase in size and frequency.

This £3,000 must be raised quickly so that this project can be launched over the next few months. Once this has been achieved a further £2,000 is needed to buy a business computer so that the National Front's administration can cope with the ever expanding volume of work which has resulted from the recent growth in the party.

Please help us to make the National Front a modern, efficient political force — a force which can challenge the wreckers of our nation.

IT'S ALWAYS heartening to read of a renegade amongst the politicians of the establishment parties.

Mr. Brain Bastin was the Labour candidate for Thames Valley in the European elections. During the campaign he was sent a questionnaire by the Migrants' Action Group and to the horror of that organisation some of his replies were not the conciliatory grovelling they had expected.

On immigration Mr. Bastin felt, "You have to be careful about the admission of too many people into this country" and that further immigration from the Third World, "Could lead to overcrowding in Britain". He also said that he hoped that poor Third World countries could be helped to improve themselves. Hear hear, and there's even better to come!

Mr. Bastin then went on to say that he wouldn't want anymore Jews or Muslims admitted to Britain; "I must say that I find the animal slaughter rituals of some religious groups, like Jews and Muslims, cruel and repugnant and I would not like to increase the proportion of the population which practices such rituals".

Needless to say, Mr. Bastin's remarks have considerably upset the growing coloured immigrant lobby within the Labour Party and discussion of some Labour Members' 'Racist attitude' was high on the agenda of the recent conference of Black Labour Activists.

YOU CAN have all the success and all the money in the world but it still can't beat white! Well that's what black pop star Michael Jackson thinks anyway.

A top artist claims he was forced to do a whitewash job on Jackson for the cover of his new album 'Victory.' Michael Whelan says he was ordered to repaint the 25 year-old's face four times, each a shade whiter "He told me to make him pretty and paler". So much for black being beautiful!

FREEDOM OF speech is a privilege we are allowed so long as our views are not inconvenient to those who allow us that privilege.

■ British Historian David Irving

British historian David Irving found this out recently when he was arrested in Vienna on June 27th and deported from Austria. He was to have been the guest speaker to the Society for Truthful Contemporary History, but in Austria any questioning of the responsibility of Nazi Germany's leaders for wartime atrocities is forbidden.

Mr. Irving was quietly removed from the country before such questions could be asked.

THE DIARIST in the Daily Express didn't mince his words.

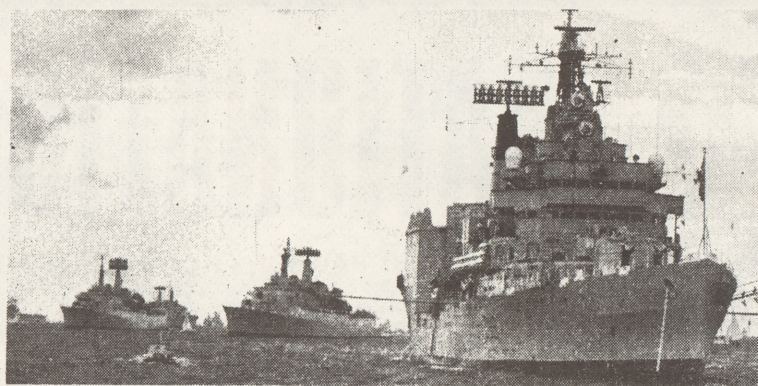

"This vile racist and deeply repellent myth which has led to the pain and destruction of the Jews from Shylock to the death camps can only be wickedly offensive. I thought the world had emerged from the Dark Ages until I heard such a question". The simple inquiry that provoked such an outcry was asked by Channel Four interviewer John Swinfield in the programme Enterprise Special, of Lord Arnold Weinstock, the boss of G.E.C. "Why is it that Jewish people are so very good with money?"

RED FACES at the Socialist Workers' Party office recently. For an enthusiastic young official had written a politically embarrassing letter which was published in the Guardian 1st June.

The letter confirmed the NF claim that the so-called Anti-Nazi League was a 'Red Front'. He wrote: "The SWP is proud to have initiated at that time the Anti-Nazi League which confronted the 'Nazis' whenever they organised". Obviously no one told Paul McGarr that it was meant to be a secret.

Scuttling Britain's Navy

■ In the world of international finance an independent free Britain is unthinkable and certainly not to be tolerated.

THE ROYAL NAVY, once the scourge of the High Seas, is to be privatised by the Conservative government. This is the inevitable consequence of a decision taken by Downing Street on Wednesday 25th July that Britain's warship yards are to be sold off by the Government to the highest bidder.

These naval yards ironically are the only profitable section of British Shipbuilders, bringing in £44 million in profits to the nation last year. Despite this Norman Tebbit, Trade and Industry Secretary, has appointed Lazard Bros as his agents to draw up a plan which will result in their complete sale within 18 months.

One of the yards which is to be sold off is the Vickers yard at Barrow-in-Furness which is responsible for assembling the next range of our nuclear submarines which are to carry the American Trident nuclear missiles. Thus there now exists the possibility that "Britain's" nuclear deterrent will consist of American missiles being carried on submarines built in yards owned by the Japanese, the Germans or even the Chinese from Hong Kong, and what happens if they subsequently decide to close down the yard? The idea that any such nuclear missile is an "independent deterrent" becomes absurd.

AMERICAN DOLLARS

Meanwhile the whole future of any nuclear deterrent is becoming doubtful. Because of the appalling decision to buy an American system rather than to build a British deterrent the cost has been calculated in American dollars. Since that costing was carried out the pound has been devalued by about 13% which will put up the cost by nearly £1000 million.

The Government however has always maintained that there will be "spin-off" contracts given to British suppliers by the Americans. The total cost of the Trident system to Britain is now estimated at £9,400 million - so far the U.S. consortium have awarded contracts worth £4.6 million to British firms - some "spin-off".

On top of all this there has been an internal row inside British Shipbuilders resulting in the sacking of Greg Mott who is head of the Vickers Shipbuilding section and who is regarded as Britain's leading authority on nuclear submarines.

The previous Chairman of Vickers, Sir Robert Atkinson said of the sacking:

"I regard him and his team as the international authority on nuclear submarines and they are irreplaceable over 5 - 10 years. I think his sacking is a supreme disaster for the Trident programme".

UNSALEABLE

The man who sacked him is Graham Day, Chairman of British Shipbuilders and an appointee of the Thatcher Government. If Sir Robert Atkinson is right then the Trident programme may have to be cancelled which could make Vickers Shipbuilding unsaleable. Mrs Thatcher will then be faced with two alternatives: either buy everything including submarines abroad or to let Britain have an independent British built nuclear deterrent.

To the National Front there is and always has been only one choice, but to Mrs Thatcher's political masters in the world of international finance an independent free Britain is unthinkable and certainly not to be tolerated.

"IT MUST BE TRUE - I read it in the papers!" This statement will be a familiar response to National Front activists who have complained of media bias. After all, the NF has often been attacked by and misrepresented in the media. NF members "promote violence against minority groups such as black people and Jews". Members of the National Front are either "thugs" or "awesomely booted bald-heads" depending on what paper you read. As for the NF itself it is "a rotten political group to which no sensible person would wish to be associated". All these things were written in newspapers, you might even have read them, does this mean that they are true?

ECONOMIC EQUATION

Something else that you might have read in the newspapers is that the miner's strike is 'a conspiracy to defy the courts' or "the last fling of illegal picketing". You might also have read that the National Union of Mineworkers "has not exerted itself to restrain pickets from violence and intimidation against those miners who want to work." If you believed what the papers told you then you would think that the NUM were a gang of militants using illegal methods to hold the country to ransom. Sadly, this is just what a significant number of people do think. The reality, however, is rather different. The NUM and its members are fighting against a system which treats them as factors in an economic equation. They are fighting against the destruction of their communities and the disruption of their lives and the lives of their families. NF members who fought for the right of white people to determine that their communities should not be disrupted by immigration should feel an emotional affinity with the striking miners. Both fight for the right to determine the environment in which they live.

By Patrick Harrington

BLAME THAT SYSTEM

It is not surprising that both the NF and the miners are attacked as promoters of violence and illegal actions by the media. But the fact is that neither the NF or the miners promote these things. Should we blame miners if when faced with job losses, years of unemployment and the desolation of their communities they, in their frustration, turn to violence? Should we blame white youths if when aliens are put before them and given special advantages in the scramble for jobs and houses they resort to violence? Although we would criticise their political judgement perhaps we can understand both the frustration of the miners and the white youth with a political system that does not care. Should we blame them or should we blame that system? It is obvious who the media are blaming.

If you don't believe that the media is telling the truth about the National Front you cannot be certain that it tells the truth about other opponents of the establishment - and that includes miners!

ONE LAW FOR THEM ONE LAW FOR US!

ON JUNE 12th, Mr. H. Hall of Bury St. Edmunds wrote to the Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police asking whether "any English demonstrators would be allowed to march at the head of their columns carrying swords".

On June 25th, Mr. Hall received a reply from Ruth Allen of the Public Information Department of New Scotland Yard, who matter of factly announced, "You may be interested to learn that a weapon is not deemed as being 'offensive' unless it is used in an offensive manner".

Now someone who would be interested in that statement is 18 year-old National Front member Darryl Scott who is at present serving 15 months in Wormwood Scrubs for allegedly possessing 'offensive weapons'. He was arrested for carrying two penknives at last year's Albert Mariner march in central London. Darryl is appealing against his sentence so detailed comment would be unwise at the moment as the matter would still be considered to be sub-judice.

However, once again, here is evidence that in Britain today there is 'One Law for Them' and 'One Law For Us!' If you're a coloured immigrant you can march through London's streets brandishing 5ft long swords, burning effigies and generally working yourself up into a frenzy while the Police just stand and watch.

But if you're British, and carrying two penknives, well that's another matter as Darryl Scott found out.

NORTH OF THE BORDER

ON SATURDAY 21st July Ian Anderson, NF Branch Liaison Officer, travelled to Glasgow for a conference of senior Scottish NF officials.

The meeting was very useful with a number of difficulties ironed out and plans were laid for future activities. As well as a rally for Scottish members in the near future it was agreed that the National Front would hold a march in Scotland this year with the venue to be announced later.

The production of a leaflet by the Scottish National Front earlier this year has resulted in substantial recruitment and the party looks set for a major advance in Scotland over the next few months.

Feeding Off The Community

NO MATTER how poor and deprived a community is, there is always those who, like parasites and leeches, will feed off what meagre resources are available.

Of the council estates of Garston, Liverpool, blood-sucking loan sharks have moved in to inveigle the already poverty-stricken residents in a web of debt and spiralling interest.

The victims, usually women or pensioners, hand over their benefit books as security for loans and then are charged extortionate rates of interest in some cases equivalent to 10,000% per annum.

PATROLS

Moneylenders, who exploit the misfortune of others are the maggots of our society and must be dealt with as such. The Police and authorities are helpless in such matters so it is up to the people themselves to act together. The residents of those Liverpool estates should form neighbourhood watch patrols and when the loan sharks come around to pick up their ill-gotten gains drive them out of the estates once and for all!

National Front Under Surveillance

AS THE National Front regenerates and starts to challenge Britain's corrupt political establishment the party itself is again coming under attack. In the area of trade unions the National Front is gaining many new recruits who are attracted by our natural patriotism and our radical alternative economic philosophy.

This growth is scaring both Reds and Tories alike. A list of NF trade union members was kept by the previous Chairman of the NF Industrial Department, David Riley who passed them onto his local Organiser when he resigned from that post. In turn this Organiser passed them onto an individual who is no longer a member of the party. From here the list fell into the hands firstly of Searchlight, the anti-racist rag and then to the grovelling pro-Tory Daily Express.

The Daily Express devoted nearly a full page to the "expose" of this "infiltration" of trade unions, although so flimsy was their case that the article probably did more good than harm.

NEGLIGIBLE

The list itself is now 3 years-old and is out of date so the harm done is negligible. The source and route of disappearance of the document has, now been traced and the individual concerned is no longer in the party. However other enemies of the party have been stepping up their attempts to infiltrate meetings and the party structure while there has been a noticeable increase in Special Branch activity. On the streets other political opponents are once again feeling the need to confront us physically and the courts are being used as a political weapon against... the reason why is simple! The National Front is back and fighting!

On the Russian Front

FIRST SECRETARY of the Russian Embassy, Yuri Mazur, had a rough ride when he addressed a public meeting organised by the Peace Council at Christ Church Hall in Leatherhead.

Fifteen members and supporters of the local National Front Group continually heckled the Soviet speaker on Russia's involvement in Afghanistan, while other members outside handed out leaflets to those arriving for the meeting.

Anti-EEC Campaign

BLACKPOOL NATIONAL Front gained substantial local press coverage for their Anti-EEC campaign.

Blackpool and Fylde NF press agent Mr. Wilfred Smith told the local papers that branch members had been busy delivering thousands of election addresses explaining why the party was giving the Common Market the cold shoulder.

MONSTER IN THE MIRROR

by Steve Brady

■ Lajbi Hoch.

THE ALIEN GRIP on Britain's media tightened further when one Lajbi Hoch, alias "Robert Maxwell", grabbed Mirror Group Newspapers in a shady Stock Market deal. This Czech Jew now controls the Daily and Sunday Mirror, the Sunday People, the Sporting Life, and Scotland's Daily Record and Sunday Mail.

Like Lord "Tony Benn" Stansgate and Ian Mikardo, Hoch/"Maxwell" manages to be both a millionaire and a "left-wing Socialist". From 1964 to 1970 he was Labour MP for Buckingham. He has used his Pergamon Press group to publish Soviet Communist propaganda, including the thunderously boring "memoirs" of dead Red tyrant Leonid Brezhnev. In return, the Ambassador of Bulgaria, Moscow's most loyal Eastern European puppet, gave a grovelling speech at Hoch/"Maxwell's" 60th birthday banquet praising the plutocratic Jew's "Life and Work".

But Hoch/"Maxwell" isn't just another rich Capitalist "Socialist". He is a particularly brutal boss, a union-basher in the best Maggie mould. When he took over the British publishing Corporation, this "loyal Labour man" fired 26% of the 10,000 workforce and closed the Park Royal printworks, in West London. Union representatives turning up for talks with management to save these jobs were met with a stream of obscene abuse from their hysterical boss, and a strike was savagely broken.

His own managers are treated little better. He once sacked his own son for being late for a business appointment, and threw a senior manager out of his Rolls onto the M4 for daring to disagree with him!

SORDID

Hoch/"Maxwell's" Stock Market shakery disgusts even his fellow plutocrats. In 1971 the Department of Trade, after investigating sundry sordid wheelings and dealings involving Hoch's empire and US Corporations, concluded that he "is not a person who can be relied on to exercise proper stewardship of a publicly quoted company".

No wonder Mirror management and unions united to oppose this Levantine shark getting his teeth into Britain's second-biggest daily paper - and threatening 3,000 of its workers with the dole. But money - £113 million of it - talks louder in today's Britain than the wishes of workers, the advice of managers, or even the interests of the British people, and so, as perhaps the ultimate contemptuous insult to our country, this slimy foreigner, from Labour's rich Capitalist "Left", was able to launch his reign on Fleet Street under the slogan "Forward with Britain!" Ugh!

REFLECTIONS

by Ted Budden

THERE HAS recently been a re-run of the "World at War" series on Channel 4 TV - TV, in this instance, being an abbreviation of Television, not Tel Aviv as some foaming bigots allege. "World at War" was produced by the famed historian Jeremy Issacs and naturally became increasingly vibrantly holocaustian as the end approached, needing all the fine thespian talents of Laurence Olivier to do it justice.

Laurence Olivier has, in his declining years, taken to specialising in the sympathetic, not to say sychophantic, portrayals of lovable Jews and is now recognised world wide as the only English ham recommended by rabbis.

UPSIDE DOWN

Nevertheless, it came as something of a shock to hear him sonorously intone the fact that 9 million Jews perished in the Nazi holocaust. Having been weaned on the figure of 6 million, I wondered for a moment if he was reading his script upside down. However, on reflection, it was a long time since the holocaust and distance lends not only enchantment but multiplication.

So now it's 9 million. Any advance on 9?

Add to this figure the hundreds of millions who survived the holocaust and it would seem that there must have been even more Jews in Europe than there were Irishmen in the Dublin GPO during the Easter rising.

One of the most famous of the holocaust victims died recently - of old age.

This one, a French Jewess, was forced to play in an orchestra in front of brutal Nazi officers in order that their dinner would not be spoiled by the cries of Jews being forced into the gas chambers. Spoiled? Surely these fiends, as they lolled in their chairs, drinking blood and nonchalantly impaling Blegian babies on their bayonets, would have considered the cries of doomed Jews to be music.

Of course some people, bigots and racist devils, consider that this kind of lurid Grand Guignol casts doubt on the veracity of holocaust mythology.

REPARATIONS

Such people cite the Diary of Ann Frank as fake merely because some of it was written in ball-point pen. Have these people no conscience at all? Isn't it obvious that Ann Frank actually invented the ball-point pen. Clearly this is just another instance of Jews being denied the fruits of their genius. Justice demands that the Biro company be convicted of war crimes and forced to pay reparations to Israel. Come on Jeremy and Larry! What are you waiting for?

Ritually Yours

I SEEM TO recall that an NF demonstrator who had had his flag pole broken by red hoodlums was charged with carrying an offensive weapon, namely a broken pole.

Carrying a steel comb, wearing big boots and, I seem to remember, possessing false teeth with intent to cause grievous bodily harm have been cited by our wonderful police as examples of aggressive intent.

FLOUT THE LAW

Of course our wonderful English law (the envy of the world, naturally) only invokes the law against the law-abiding. Determined thugs, if present in sufficiently large numbers, not merely flout the law but afflict our wonderful police with some kind of paralysis.

This probably explains why the Sikhs, that privileged caste of international trouble makers, are able to treat the law with the contempt it probably deserves.

Never was this more evident than in the recent "protest" march by Sikhs against the Indian government. Not merely did these unwelcome guests openly sport daggers but actually carried drawn swords while the police were ensuring that no fiend with a broken flag pole was allowed to menace them.

Of course the police would say that the daggers and swords are part of the Sikhs' religious ritual, a fact to which anyone who had been ritually disembowelled by them would readily testify. Meanwhile, from our Government, the party of law and order, not one single peep.

THE PRIVILEGED CLASS

Special Report

THE SUMMER MONTHS are a nail-biting time for central and local government. Will the privileges and money that they have heaped this year on Britain's coloured communities be enough to stop them rioting? In St. Pauls, Bristol, it obviously wasn't. On July 26th over 100 Black youths looted shops and stoned the police. But in other areas it seems to be working although just to be on the safe side, those few extra privileges. . . .

June 2nd

REPRESENTATIVES OF the TUC Education Committee and the Race Relations Advisory Committee met to discuss positive action to improve job opportunities for coloured immigrants.

They urged the Government to see that the Careers Service gets more funds and staff to deal with the needs of coloured immigrants. They also demanded that more coloured immigrants be recruited as Careers Officers.

June 7th

DESPITE PROTESTS lodged by local residents, Darlaston Area Planning Committee has given the go ahead for the town's Hindu Community to use a former nightclub in Salisbury Street for a Hindu Temple and Community Centre.

June 8th

SOCIAL SERVICE officers in Birmingham have been ordered to give preference to coloured immigrants when recruiting staff.

The recruitment policy is part of the Labour-run council's scheme to look after the needs of the city's 'Privileged Class'.

The 1981 census showed that 15% of Birmingham's head of households were coloured immigrants and that more than one-third of all babies born in the city were non-white.

June 11th

MS. SEBLE Hailu, a copy typist at the Social Science Research Council was awarded £200 for injury to her feelings.

It was alleged that the head of the typist pool, Mrs Janet Murray, 'had been racist towards her' because she had criticised Hailu's work in front of other typists.

Although the SSRC and Mrs Murray denied the allegations the tribunal 'was not satisfied with their explanations'.

June 18th

CARDINAL HUME has set up an advisory group composed entirely of coloured immigrants to instruct him in what the Roman Catholic Church can do for Westminster's 'Privileged Class'.

June 22nd

'PRIVILEGED CLASS' spokesman and Brixton Advice-Centre boss, Harley Dean, denounced the £3 million Railton Road housing estate as 'a drop in the ocean' of the needs of coloured immigrants.

He was talking about the Marcus Garvey Estate, named after the Black rights campaigner, which will house over 170 coloured immigrants.

June 25th

BLACK BUSINESSES in London are to be given priority by the GLC as part of its Anti-Racist Year.

The Greater London Enterprise Board has already set up schemes to:-

a) Put money into coloured immigrant enterprises.

b) Make available consultancy services and advice centres solely for coloured immigrants to come and air any queries of problems.

c) Make property available for coloured immigrant enterprises.

June 28th

THE GOVERNMENT is spending over £1 million on courses indoctrinating Britain's senior police officers in 'Race Awareness'.

Launching the project, Mr. Hurd, Home Office Minister of State, said "The main aim of the courses is to get the Police to listen to ethnic minority groups".

The minister also admitted that the courses were part of an initiative by the Government to avoid a repeat of the 1980-81 riots.

June 29th

TWO HUNDRED members of Bristol's 'Privileged Class' walked out of a meeting addressed by Home Office Minister, Mr. David Waddington.

They were protesting at the Government's 'racist' immigration laws. Despite this rebuff, Mr Waddington is to continue his grovelling mission to cities with large coloured immigrant communities.

July 5th

THE RASTAFARIAN Centre in Willenhall Road, Wolverhampton will cost ratepayers £32,000 this year, with two-thirds of that amount going on wages.

Complaints that the local council have been over-generous to the Rastafarians have been described as 'racist'.

July 4th

THE MIDLANDS Electricity Board is to change its recruiting methods to ensure more jobs for coloured immigrants.

The MEB joins Unigate Dairies who have also been forced to change their recruitment methods after a probe by the Commission for Racial Equality.

July 5th

WALSALL COUNCILLORS turned down two applications to turn the disused Willenhall Motor Radiator Club in Noose Lane into a snooker and billiard hall with catering facilities.

Instead they have approved the 'Privileged Class' application from the Walsall West Indian Association to turn the building into a 'Centre for Walsall's West Indian Community'.

July 6th

MORE THAN £37,000 is to be handed over to two coloured immigrant groups in Wandsworth.

£17,000 goes to a 'Black Workers Forum' while £20,000 goes to the 'Black Elderly Project'. The money has been made available by the Inner London Education Authority.

July 7th

LEADERS OF Liverpool's coloured immigrant community stormed out of a meeting with councillors complaining that the council was ignoring their demands.

Spokesman, Alex Barnett, said "We want representation on the committees that have power. We want representation on all committees".

July 10th

HUNDREDS OF West Midland companies are facing detailed 'race checks' before they can qualify for a share of County Hall contracts worth more than £8½ million a year.

Labour councillors have agreed to employ a three-strong team of investigators, at a cost to the ratepayers of £30,000 a year, to check that local firms are looking after the job requirements of the area's 'Privileged Class'.

July 15th

W.H. SMITHS ARE stocking Asian language books in their store in Slough.

After months of direct pressure from Asian and community leaders, Smiths are displaying titles in Punjabi, Hindu and Urdu.

July 20th

BLACK YOUTH, Paul Jonas, has been awarded £140 compensation after successfully claiming racial discrimination at a job interview.

A spokesman for the firm concerned, Aigburth Glass Centre, admitted "Yes, the racial prejudices of our customers played a part. We had to take into consideration the fact that people in the area would not be happy about having a coloured boy working in their houses".

ANIMAL WELFARE

RSPCA 'Under Fire'

THE R.S.P.C.A. HAVE followed the National Front's lead and at the beginning of July launched their own campaign against the evil practice of ritual slaughter.

Periodically over the last ten years the society has undertaken similar campaigns but each time 'the flak' from the immigrant groups and various pro-ethnic MP's has caused the campaigners to 'run for cover' with no success being achieved.

Once again, hardly had the R.S.P.C.A. offensive been launched when 'Jewish big guns started pounding their position'.

Chief Rabbi, Sir Immanuel Jakobovits, condemned the society's campaign as 'deplorable' and said that it was disgraceful that the religious rights of the ethnic communities should be challenged.

Jewish MP Greville Janner, speaking at a Board of Deputies of British Jews' dinner said "This is a really disgraceful and condescending way for people to regard the religious beliefs of others, whether Jews or Muslims."

BOYCOTT

Labour Council Groups have also attacked the R.S.P.C.A. Brent councillor, Martin Coleman, criticised the Society for a discriminatory attitude "because they are minorities, the Jewish and Muslim communities no doubt make easy targets". The Labour group on Brent Council has moved a motion in support of ritual slaughter and are advising local organisations to boycott the R.S.P.C.A. in favour of other animal welfare groups.

No Government action is likely with regard to ritual slaughter until the Farm Animal Welfare Council produces its own report on the subject early next year. Even if this report finds in favour of a ban on the Shechita and Halal methods of slaughter, parliament would be much too afraid of upsetting Britain's Jewish and Muslim communities to take any action.

STOP THIS EVIL

RITUAL SLAUGHTER is the killing of an animal for food purposes without pre-stunning. 3 million animals a year are killed by the ritual slaughter method. Although much of the 'ritual meat' is consumed by immigrant communities in Britain, because of our liberal laws in allowing such a method of killing, a booming trade is growing in Britain.

In both the Shechita (Jewish) and Halal (Muslim) methods of slaughter the animal is turned upside down while encased in a metal chamber and has its throat cut by a religious knife. It is fully conscious and in agony for up to two minutes as its blood drains away.

The National Front is Britain's only political party to campaign against ritual slaughter. 'Stop This Evil', a leaflet showing the full horrors of ritual slaughter is available from 50 Pawns Road, Croydon, Surrey CRO 2QF for £5.00 a 1,000. The National Front has also produced a video showing the full horrors of ritual slaughter. This is also available from the same address for £12.00 (VHS format).

FRONT BEAT THE TORIES!

CONGRATULATIONS TO Raymond Bradford, National Front Candidate for St. Peter's Ward, Tower Hamlets, who polled 97 votes and beat the Tories into 4th place in a recent by-election.

July proved a busy election month for the National Front. On July 5th, Lambeth NF started the ball rolling fighting the two vacant seats for Stockwell Ward. Despite leafletting every household with their own very good leaflet, the two NF candidates only managed to poll 1.89% of the vote and general opinion is that the branch won't be fighting that ward again.

NEARLY HALF

A week later it was Southwark NF's turn to contest the vacant seat for Lyndhurst Ward in Dulwich. In this virgin territory for the Front, candidate Raymond Barker polled 65 votes gaining a respectable 2.43% of the vote. It is interesting to note that since the General Election the NF has fought two of Dulwich's eight wards and polled nearly half of the total vote gained in 1983. If Southwark Branch keeps up its work-rate in this area it is not inconceivable that, with the new election laws lowering the percentage for a saved deposit to 5%, the National Front could be in with a fighting chance next time.

A saved deposit would definitely be expected in Bethnal Green and Bow where Tower Hamlets NF candidate Raymond Bradford did so well on July 19th. Their percentage was 4.29 on a 31% turnout and was no mean achievement in a ward with a growing Asian population.

GRAYS MARCH

A NATIONWIDE campaign of regional marches was kicked off on Saturday 30th June with an exciting afternoon in Grays, Essex. About 100 NF members marched through the town led by the London Drum Corps and the banner of the newly formed Grays unit of the party.

DETERRED

A similar number of Reds and Asians became increasingly hysterical as the column made its way through the town. There was a minimal police presence. However the sight of our stewarding party deterred them from anything more than verbal abuse and occasional foaming at the mouth.

The march was the culmination of a month long campaign of paper selling, leafletting and posterling. As a result of this work put in both before and after the march a number of new recruits have joined up which will help the Grays Group grow into a major Branch of the party.

THE PATRICK HARRINGTON AFFAIR

What the papers said:-

"Mr. Frank Howard, a member of the National Union of Students executive said NUS policy was that NF members should not be allowed to participate in education because 'they have gone beyond the democratic pale'."

The Guardian, May 16 1984.

"The premise of these student demonstrators is the same as that of the majority at the recent annual meeting of the National Council for Civil Liberties: that 'racism' is so heinous an attitude, so debilitating a belief that it removes all antecedent rights - to a fair hearing, to civil rights of movement and speech, to (Mr. Harrington's right as a properly matriculated student) attend lectures. What sort of doctrine is this that puts 'racism' unapproachably high on the list of moral failings? The answer is: this is no doctrine but an emotional spasm, a substitute for thought, totalitarian in tendency."

The Times, Leader, May 18 1984.

"Mr. Harrington, somewhat inconsistently as his philosophy tutor might yet inform him, is seeking to benefit from the liberal idea of academic freedom. Students who physically block his way and assault him in the name of anti-fascism are behaving like the Nazi students of the '30's who disrupted lectures by anti-Nazi professors."

The Daily Telegraph, Editorial, May 16 1984.

"If we start excluding people from their lawful occupations because someone claims to be offended, we are on a very slippery slope indeed."

Hardly anyone would be able to do anything. The only test is whether you keep within the law."

The Sun, Editorial, May 23 1984.

"If you were a polytechnic student would you allow a member of the National Front into your class? I would, but I should refuse to lend him my ballpoint pen."

Keith Waterhouse, Daily Mirror, May 21 1984.

"The police are being placed in an extremely difficult position. I doubt that even the strength of the Metropolitan Police could ensure than a man can go into a lecture in the face of 500 students and listen to a lecture. Logic dictates that a lecture would not take place."

Mr. John Robinson, Commander 'E' District,
The Guardian, May 17 1984.

"Riot Police complete with batons, truncheons and shields, smashed their way into North London Polytechnic last week. They were ensuring that National Front student organiser (sic) Patrick Harrington could enter the college."

Socialist Worker, May 26 1984.

"Irony, isn't it, that the students who started the protest would have achieved far less for the cause of the National Front if they had carried banners supporting it?"

Sunday Express, May 20 1984.

DONCASTER: Establishing a Unit

■ Doncaster National Front on a recent leaflet and papersales drive in the town. Over 700 leaflets were given out.

DONCASTER NF organiser, Jim Tyrer, is well pleased with the response he is getting from his local members when it comes to activities.

On a recent leaflet and papersales drive in Doncaster, Jim had the support of half a dozen of the group's more senior members to help in getting the message across, he told NF News.

"In just half an hour we sold over 30 National Front News and Bulldogs and handed out over 700 'Tear Up the Dole Cards' and 'Whose Future'. The success of the exercise can be gauged by the fact that we even sold the NF badges out of our lapels. Incidentally the average age of our sales team is well over 40 all of whom are ex-servicemen".

Jim Tyrer says that the papersale was just one of many activities that have taken place in the Doncaster area in the summer months and is helping establish one of the National Front's newer units.

■ The sales team comprising of nearly all ex-servicemen. This hard-working group of activists are really getting the Doncaster Branch off the ground.

WHAT KIND OF SOCIETY?

What kind of society is prepared to protect its guilty mass-murderers...

ALIVE

DEAD

■ Guilty Murderer.

■ Innocent Baby.

yet washes its hands of its responsibility to the innocent unborn child?

SICK SOCIETY

"Now look at a sick society" is a line from a recent record by the National Front band, Skrewdriver, and how aptly it describes the lunacy of this country's laws governing murder and abortion.

Self-confessed, sadistic mass-murderers such as 'The Yorkshire Ripper', 'The Black Panther' and Dennis Neilson see out their years, with possibility of release, at the taxpayers' expense, after committing the most horrific crimes against our society.

The same laws however allow innocent, helpless unborn babies to have their life terminated without even having a chance to contribute to our society.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

A 'National Front Society' would redress this balance in values. A 'National Front Society' would see the restoration of capital punishment for all forms of murder except crimes of passion. Terrorist activities, such as bombings, likely to lead to a loss of life, would also be punishable by the death sentence.

ABORTION

A 'National Front Society' would only tolerate abortions to be performed where a mother conceived as a result of rape, where medical opinion asserts that there is a genuine and serious danger to the health or life of the mother if the pregnancy is allowed to continue; or where medical opinion indicates that the foetus is seriously damaged or malformed. Of course all such abortions would be dependent on the consent of the mother.

REDRESS THE BALANCE

The National Front is Britain's only political party that is campaigning to redress the balance in Britain's unfair and 'sick' society.
